

HARFORD REGION VISITS GLEN ROCK

Harford Region traveled to Glen Rock Pennsylvania during its 2009 Icicle Run on February 21. Thirty-two participants met near Fallston and traveled to Glen Rock, Pennsylvania. The group's destination in Glen Rock was Al Prueitt and Son's Automotive Restoration Shop.

Prueitt's is a nationally known, award-winning, family owned business that was begun by Al Prueitt over 49 years ago. The group was given a guided tour of the facility and saw a number of vehicles undergoing restoration. Several of the vehicles were being readied for the prestigious Concourse d' Elegance in Amelia Island, Florida during March 13-15, 2009. Following a fun and informative tour of the restoration facility, the group traveled a few blocks to the historic Glen Rock Mill Inn for lunch.

Participants of the 2009 Icicle Run were Judy and Al Burns, Sandy and Butch Moxley, Nancy and Fred Brandon, Evelyn and Charlie Blevins, Kevin Blevins, Joyce and Ray Wheeler, Pat and Bill Ningard, Pattie and Stoney Stonesifer, Janet and Joe Pretchel, Mary Lou and Warren Wolbert and grandchildren, Roy Clark, David Oberender, Yale Fagan, Dorothy and Jim Farmer, Jane and Dave English, Shirley and Blaine Linkous, and Bruce and Shannon Wheeler.

A 1941 Cadillac Being Prepared for Amelia Island

Examining Some of the Project Cars Upstairs

Arriving at Al Prueitt & Son's Restoration Shop

Looking over a 1929 Duesenberg Convertible

Our Guide Discusses the Operations at Prueitt's

Arriving at the Glen Rock Mill for Lunch